

BRAMBLETREK

WARMTH OF THE FIRST FROST

IT IS TIME FOR THE SHIVER

In the heart of Hyhill, the air grows crisp and the forest floor crunches underfoot, signalling the arrival of The First Frost, the cherished winter celebration of the communities. It is a time when the Gnawborn, alongside their close relatives, the hedgehog-like Bristleborn and the sprightly squirrel-like Bushborn, gather to mark the beginning of winter's embrace.

The First Frost is more than a festival; it is an age-old tradition woven into the very fabric of the forest's yearly cycle. It heralds a season of introspection and community, celebrating the quiet beauty of winter and the resilience of the forest dwellers. The Bristleborn, artisans of the woods, carve delicate ice sculptures that sparkle like stars under the moonlit sky, while the Bushborn prepare sumptuous feasts, turning their summer's bounty into dishes that warm the heart and soul.

Amidst these preparations, the Grand Frostfire is lit. It is a colossal bonfire that not only combats the encroaching chill but also serves as a beacon of unity and warmth. Here, under the boughs heavy with snow, tales of the past year are shared, and songs of the coming spring are sung. Children play in the snow, their laughter mingling with the crackling of the fire, while elders pass down stories of the forest's magic and mystery.

However, this year's First Frost is tinged with an air of expectancy, as ancient legends suggest a mystical phenomenon may occur. It is said that every hundred years, the frost brings with it secrets from the old times. Hidden knowledge and forgotten powers that are revealed only under the cover of winter's first deep snow.

As you step into this enchanting celebration, you will not only partake in joyous festivities but also unravel mysteries that have slumbered beneath the frost. Join hands with the Gnawborn, Bristleborn, and Bushborn as they navigate this magical season, exploring the depths of ancient woods and the bonds that tie them to this enchanted land. Discover what the frost might unveil this cycle, and how it could change the life of the forest and its inhabitants forever.

"The First Frost" invites you on a journey of frost-bound wonder, where every snowflake whispers secrets, and every icy breath holds a promise of enchanting adventures.

The First set of prompts in the village can be done as much as you want until you are ready to explore the forests in this cold season.

LEGACY THE SNACKER

Snackers are resourceful and hearty, bringing both culinary expertise and a bit of defensive prowess to the table. They always thrive in a supportive role with a flavorful twist, using their skills to heal their allies through the power of food and clever use of tools. But sometimes they do end up eating their supplies.

RESOURCE BOOST & FLAW +5 HEALTH, -3 SUPPLIES

CULINARY ASSAULT: ONCE PER DAY, ATTACK BY THROWING YOUR ITEMS, DRAW A CARD AND DEAL THAT MUCH DAMAGE BUT LOSE SUPPLIES EQUAL TO HALF THE VALUE (ROUNDED DOWN)

SCAVENGER: EACH TIME YOU DISCOVER SUPPLIES, GAIN 1 HEALTH TOO.

FEAST: ONCE PER DAY, DURING COMBAT, EAT ANY NUMBER OF SUPPLIES AND GAIN TEMPORARY HEALTH EQUAL TO THE AMOUNT EATEN.

(TEMPORARY HEALTH ACTS LIKE A SHIELD AND ANY DAMAGE IS DEALT TO THAT FIRST AND IT DISAPPEARS AT THE END OF COMBAT)

ADVENTURES IN THE FROZEN FOREST

As the joyous echoes of "The First Frost" celebration fade, a serene yet profound call beckons from the outer wilds of Hyhill. The winter, with its pristine beauty and hidden secrets, invites the bold and the curious to venture beyond the warmth of the Grand Frostfire and the communal festivities. It is in these frost-kissed forests and snow-laden paths that the true spirit of adventure lies dormant, awaiting those daring enough to uncover it.

This section of our journey is not just a continuation of the celebration but a pivotal exploration into the unknown stretches of the forest during its most enchanting and challenging season. Ancient legends whispered by the elders speak of mystical phenomena unique to this frigid time. Secrets enveloped in the ice and shadows that can only be discovered when the land is asleep under a blanket of snow.

Armed with the camaraderie forged during The First Frost, and inspired by tales of old, you, alongside your Gnawborn, Bristleborn, and Bushborn companions, are set to traverse the frozen landscape. Here, the quiet solitude of the wilds contrasts sharply with the festive spirit, offering a different kind of introspection and challenge. Each step through the crunching snow, each breath of icy air brings both peril and wonder, testing your resolve and inviting you to witness the magic that thrives in the cold.

Prepare to leave the beaten path and chart a course through the whispering pines and frost-bound mysteries. This adventure promises not only to reveal the hidden depths of Hyhill but also to transform your understanding of the forest and your place within it. Embrace the chill, listen to the silent stories of the snow, and let the adventure reshape the winter woods into a map of memorable discoveries.

For combat please use the same rules as laid out in the core rulebook, simply theme the enemy and their tactic to be more frost related when journalling!

ALLY SMORES

Smares, a charming Bristleback from the wilds of Hyhill, has returned home to celebrate with his family. Amid the celebrations, Smares had a little mishap: he accidentally tumbled into a pile of marshmallows, resulting in them sticking all over his spikes. With arms too short, he's in a bit of a predicament.

Despite the marshmallow mishap, Smares sees this as a chance to make amends and contribute positively to the group. His cheerful demeanour and readiness to assist make him a delightful companion on any adventure.

Smares can use one of these abilities each day:

SHIELD: ONCE PER DAY, SMORES CAN USE HIS MARSHMALLOW-LADEN SPIKES TO ABSORB DAMAGE FROM AN ATTACK DIRECTED AT HIMSELF OR AN ALLY. THIS ABILITY REDUCES THE DAMAGE TAKEN BY 3 POINTS.

SWEET TREAT: ONCE PER DAY, SMORES CAN OFFER ONE OF HIS MARSHMALLOW SPIKES TO AN ALLY, PROVIDING THEM A BOOST OF ENERGY. THIS RESTORES 2 HEALTH AND 1 MORALE TO THE ALLY, AS THE SWEET TREAT LIFTS SPIRITS AND HEALS MINOR WOUNDS.

During combat, Smares always takes his turn after you and you draw cards as if he is another player and play the tactics you want him to do.

TACTIC TABLE - SMORES

EPILOGUE

As you return to the village with Smores, the embers of the Grand Frostfire burn down to a warm glow, the communities of Hyhill. Gnawborn, Bristleborn, and Bushborn all gather one final time beneath the stark, beautiful branches now heavy with snow.

The First Frost celebration concludes, leaving behind memories of laughter shared, challenges overcome, and mysteries uncovered beneath the frost.

The tales of this winter will be etched into the annals of Hyhill, stories of a frost that brought with it secrets from old times and tested the mettle of all who dwell within the forest. Bonds have been strengthened, and the wisdom of the forest, passed through generations, has found new ears. Every flake of snow, every breath of cold air has taught you more about survival, unity, and the magic that winter cloaks in silence.

As you prepare for the journey home, your heart is full of the peace that only a deep and quiet winter can bring. The forest seems to whisper a soft farewell, its voice a gentle wind carrying promises of spring.

The First Frost may have ended, but its spirit lingers, a guiding light through the darker days, reminding you that even in the coldest times, there is warmth in community and wonder in the wild.

This year's adventure has prepared you for the seasons to come, and as you walk away from the Grand Frostfire, you know that the forest of Hyhill is not just a place you live in, it is a part of you, as enduring and ever-changing as the First Frost itself.
